HOW TO GET FROM THE AIRPORT TO THE HOTELS/CITY?

You can travel from Trondheim Værnes Airport to Trondheim City centre by:

Bus

Two companies, they depart frequently (every 10/15 min) from the airport, they stand directly outside the airport door (You can buy the ticket directly from the driver, approximately 150 NOK one way 220 NOK with return, but then this needs to be with the same company):

- Flybussen (Nettbuss)
Airport bus service serves all hotels in Trondheim city centre (included Radisson Blue Hotel and Thon Hotel, you can say to the driver what is your hotel and they will tell you what bus stop is the closest). Final stop at St. Olavs hospital and Sorgenfri station in Trondheim.

HOW TO GET FROM THE HOTELS TO THE VENUE?

Both venues are approximately 20 min walking distance from the city centre.

- 1: Radisson Blue Hotel
- 2: Thon Hotel Trondheim
- 3: Gamle Elektro, NTNU, room EL6
- 4: SINTEF Energy

Other alternatives to walking:

Trondheim City Bike, the most efficient way to get around in Trondheim:

<https://trondheimbysykkel.no/en>

There are parked bikes all around the city and also at the campus where the venue is located (NTNU Gløshaugen campus). You can get 24 hour pass for 49 NOK.

City buses, there are several options to get the tickets: <https://www.atb.no/en/ticket/>

Maybe the easiest is to download the app ATB and buy the ticket with your phone, you can choose between single ticket valid for 1h 30 min (38 NOK), 24 hours pass (144 NOK), or 7-day pass (266 NOK). Visit ATB page for information about routes and schedule from any point in the city to the venue: <https://www.atb.no/en/>

Note:

- In the ATB page you will need to write the address or the bus stop name and not the name of the hotel/company.
- Due to maintenance works in the campus, the closest bus stops that work for now are: Gløshaugen and Einar Tambarskjelves gate.

Trondheim is located at 63,4° North, and is well-known for rapidly changing weather. You can expect to experience temperatures between 8 and 25 degrees and everything from bright sunshine or overcast to rain, hail and heavy winds. Please bring suitable clothing and shoes for these conditions. There are also good conditions for walking, running or taking a swim in the city or very close by - or a bit further in the hills west of town or by the sea towards north and east.
